

James L. Davis Graduates from Clarkson College

James L. Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Davis, 25 Robinson street, Canajoharie, received his bachelor of electrical engineering degree at Clarkson College of Technology's 66th commencement exercises Sunday at Potsdam.

JAMES L. DAVIS

A graduate of Canajoharie Central school in 1955, Davis is a member of the Alpha Chi Rho social fraternity, the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Institute of Radio Engineers at Clarkson. He has worked for the college radio station WNTC, was vice-president of the Clarkson-PS-TC ice carnival ticket committee, of which he was co-chairman in his junior year and general business manager this year. He is also a member of the Methodist College Fellowship.

He has accepted a position with the Burroughs Corporation in the radar division, Philadelphia, Pa., effective June 29.

The commencement address Sunday was given by Gordon Gray, special assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, who received the honorary degree of Doctor of Science during the exercises.

William Gardner Van Note, president of Clarkson College, conferred the degrees.
